HOOKS and PARRISH

Between These Pages . . .

"Trade hardly deems the busy day begun
Till his keen eye along the sheet has run;
The blooming daughter throws her needle by
And reads her school mate's marriage with a sigh;
While the grave mother puts her glasses on,
And gives a tear to some old crony gone.
The preacher, too, his Sunday theme lays down;
To know what last new folly fills the town;
Lively or sad, life's meanest, mightiest things,
The fate of fighting cocks, or fighting kings."

THE GREGO STAFF, 1960-61

Message

Dear Students:

We of the administration and faculty are happy that we have had the opportunity of sharing with you one of the happiest years of your lives. We hope that you have acquired an extra year of knowledge, learned to do your best, and cultivated lasting friendships.

All of us owe a debt of gratitude to the Annual Staff for publishing this edition of the GREGO, and our very best wishes go with the members of the 1961 Senior Class.

May this annual always be an inspiration to help you become better than what you are!

Yours truly,

Samuel J. Cole

Appreciation . . .

"Hearts, like doors, will open with ease
To very, very little keys;
And don't forget that two of these
Are 'I thank you' and 'If you please'."

We started our annual with "Give us money, if you please" and you, our loyal advertisers, pleased. Now we close our annual with untold "Thank You's" for making this 1961 GREGO possible.

Commencement Address Views Future With Promise

DR. J. H. HORNE
Registrar of E. C. C.

Dr. J. H. Horne, Registrar of East Carolina College, delivered the commencement address to the graduating class of 1961. In his address he stressed the philosophy of three great teachers, Socrates, Plato, and Jesus Christ: "KNOW THYSELF... If you don't know yourself, how can you know others? CONTROL THYSELF... It's all right for you to become angry and all right for me to become angry, but it's not all right for both of us to become angry at the same time. GIVE THYSELF... Instead of buying expensive gifts, do an act of kindness. It's the little things that count."

Excerpts From Valedictory Address

BONNIE DEW BALLANCE

"Classmates, parents, teachers, and friends: the more difficult part of any graduation program is to say goodbye and, in doing so, to express becomingly the appreciation and affection of the students for those from whom they part. This it is my privilege and duty, on behalf of my classmates, now to do. In bidding farewell to you the members of the Board of Education, Mr. Cole, and our teachers we extend our heartfelt thanks. You have enabled us to begin the acquisition of what Aristotle called "an ornament in prosperity, and a refuge in adversity"—an education.

To you, our parents, we thank you for your love and support. Without you we would be nothing. To you, the undergraduates, we wish to leave you with a gem of admonition: Do not try to bluff; you will be found out. Do not waste time; you will be sorry. Get all the knowledge you can; you will need it.

And now, fellow members of the graduating class, we too must part, but in triumph or failure, wealth or poverty, sickness or health, the bright recollections of the class of 1961 will never fade. In our hearts we shall not be divided."

Excerpts From Salutatory Address

JESSE AYCOCK BLACKMAN

"Tonight is the night for us to say goodbye. In doing so, I would like to thank, for the senior class, everyone connected with our graduation. Each of us would especially like to thank our parents. You have worked as hard for this occasion as we have. You have stood by us through both the stormy and the fair weather. We would like to thank our teachers. You have worked with and taught us, helping our parents in training us in our growth toward maturity.

Although we are leaving, we still need the guidance, understanding, advice, and friendship of all of you. You have made us what we are, and what we will be depends very much on the help you continue to give us.

Once again I would like to thank all of you, on behalf of the members of the senior class, for making this most enjoyable and memorable moment possible for us."

EIGHTH GRADE-TRANSITION TO HIGH SCHOOL

"There Is No Business Like School Business"

"Thou art not for the fashion of these times."

Mr. Cole Challenges:

Fremont, May 30-

The students of the eighth grade presented a lively skit "There's No Business Like School Business" based on the music from South Pacific. Dreams of future activities presented as challenges by many of the students caused them to take time to recall past and future educational opportunities in Fremont Graded School. They expressed realization of the duties in store for them as they enter high school and work toward accomplishment of their dreams.

"Miss Anne" Yelverton and Mr. Raymond Gurley, eighth grade sponsors, planned and directed the program. The songs were directed by Mrs. Ladelle Pate and piano music was furnished by Jimmy Aycock, past graduate of Fremont High School.

Seventh Grade Honor Students

High School-Here We Come!!

Mr. S. J. Cole, Superintendent of the Fremont Schools, presented certificates of promotion to High School to forty-five eighth grade students during exercises Tuesday morning, May 30, 1961. He challenged them to set their goals high and to work hard toward achievement of these goals.

All classes of the school and many parents and other interested persons attended the program. Awards were presented for perfect attendance, typing efficiency, DAR good citizenship, bus drivers, and French proficiency.

Serving as marshals for the program were seventh grade honor students: Jimmy Davis, Ben Ray O'Neal, Jean Stevenson, Suzanne Hayes, Kay Peacock, and Mary D. Wiggs.

Class History

In the fall of 1949 about 42 students entered the first grade of Fremont Graded School. These students are the distinguished seniors of 1960-61. Through our grammar grade years our teachers taught us many things, not only our school studies, but also about life.

Miss Moringo started us off in the first grade. Miss Short had us in the second grade. We were Miss Virginia Whitehurst's first class in the third grade. Our school lost a good teacher when she married Mr. Russell Davis. They are the parents of one of our mascots, Russ Jr.

Mrs. Pearl Hartley was our fourth grade teacher. We had Miss Neva Harper in the fifth grade. Once again we had Mrs. Hartley in the sixth grade. A newlywed, Mrs. Patricia Barnes, was our seventh grade teacher. In the eighth grade "Mis" Anne prepared us for high school.

We had many enjoyable activities during our elementary years. Each year we looked forward to our annual class picnic. We journeyed to either Gold Park Lake, Goldsboro Park, or Wilson Pool at the end of the year for these picnics. Most of us had our first train ride when our class took a train to Goldsboro to the park while we were in the first grade.

In the fifth grade Miss Harper took us to the Planetarium in Chapel Hill to see the Easter story. In the Seventh grade Mrs. Barnes took us to Orton Plantation and Carolina Beach. Also that year we gave an operetta for our chapel program. It was entitled "The Mikado."

Next year in "Mis' Anne's" eighth grade we took several very interesting trips. We traveled all over Raleigh. We even met Governor Hodges at the Capitol. We also took a tour of Wayne County, visiting many of the interesting and historical spots in our county. We presented another operetta that year. This one was called the "H. M. S. Pinafore."

The next year we took a big step in our school life, entering high school in the fall of 1957. Changing classes was a new routine for us but within a few weeks, after finding ourselves in the wrong class several times, we had become full-fledged high school students. Miss Sadie Bell was our homeroom sponsor that year. She took us to Wilson Pool on our class picnic.

The next year, in the tenth grade, the girls and the boys were divided into separate homerooms because of the large number of students. Mr. W. A. Ballance had the boys and Miss Jessie Thompson had the girls. That year we started making money for next year's Junior-Senior Banquet by selling Christmas Cards. At the end of the year Mr. Ballance and Miss Thompson took us on a very enjoyable class trip—to Carolina Beach for the day.

The next year we came back to Fremont High School as Juniors. Mr. Ralph Wainwright was our sponsor. We worked hard that year, not only on our school studies, but also in making money for and presenting the Junior-Senior Banquet. We picked cotton, sold magazines, sponsored the Eurekaletes, had a slave sale, and sponsored a Harvest Dance. In April we presented the best Junior-Senior Banquet in the history of Fremont High School. Our theme was "The Old South." The decorations consisted of a Southern mansion at one end of the gym, a fish pool, band stand, and a rock garden. The "Melodaires" furnished the music.

On the morning of August 30th twenty-seven students entered the senior class, the final rung of that tall ladder of twelve big steps. Mrs. Sedalia S. Green guided us through this year. We worked hard toward our goal of going to New York City on our class trip. We picked cotton, sold barbecue, rode donkeys, sponsored dances, produced a senior play, sponsored a talent show, and did many other projects in order to make money for this trip.

One of the most enjoyable of our projects was the senior play. This was a three act hillbilly comedy entitled "Headin' For a Weddin'." It was the story of the Hollowbone family in the hills of Virginia. Things became complicated when Melissa Dugan and the Todd sisters became snowbound in the hills. It happened that Homer Hollowbone had been corresponding with the rich Melissa Dugan under false pretenses. The situation really became confused until Paw and his pet skunk, Gloria solved the problem.

On another enjoyable occasion, although not a money making project, we were the guests of the Juniors at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. The banquet this year was held at the Goldsboro Hotel. The music was furnished by the "Melodaires." The seniors wish to continue to thank the juniors for such a wonderful night.

One of the biggest events of the year finally rolled around. The day was Monday, May 1; the time 5 o'clock a.m. Twenty-six seniors and eight chaperones rolled out of Fremont in a Seashore Bus bound for New York City. Our chaperones were: Mrs. Sedalia Green, Mrs. Mary Broughton, Mrs. Marjorie Aycock, Mrs. Ernestine Lewis, Mrs. Wanda Faye Valenzuela, Mrs. Boneta Blow, Mrs. Braxton Vaughn, and Mr. Arthur Powers, our bus driver. (We might add that Mr. Powers is not only the best bus driver in the world, but he could get a job as guide for any tour in Washington or New York.) We thank him very much for making our trip successful.

That first day, Monday, we rode all day stopping once in Philadelphia at Independence Hall. We arrived in New York City at eight o'clock and checked in at the President Hotel, just off Times Square. During the next three days we visited many points of interest, including the Empire State Building, the freight docks, the Statue of Liberty, Rockefeller Plaza and the Down-Under Restaurant, Coney Island, Macy's, the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, and many others. We especially enjoyed the Broadway play "Wildcat," starring Lucille Ball, which we saw at the Alvin Theatre; and the first-run movie, entitled "Parrish" which we saw at Radio City Music Hall. On the same program there, we also saw the world-famous Rockettes do a dance number.

We got a good look at up-state New York countryside when we traveled to Hyde Park and West Point.

Friday morning we boarded our bus to come back to Washington, D. C., where we stayed at the Manger Annapolis Hotel. That night we went to a nightclub, the Casino Royal, where we saw Danny and the Juniors, a popular rock 'n roll singing group.

During our stay there we visited the Washington Monument, Capitol, White House, Smithsonian Institute, change of guard at unknown soldier's tomb, Lincoln Memorial, Curtis-Lee Mansion, the zoo, and Mount Vernon.

This trip was a once-in-a-lifetime experience. It was worth all the hard work that went into earning the money necessary for the trip.

When we returned to Fremont we found that it was still here and no one had really missed us much. At school we went back to the old grindstone. The teachers heaped the homework on us.

Still, however, we found time to attend a wonderful party given us by Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Hooks and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Davis, our mascots' parents. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Hooks gave us a barbecue supper and a hayride to Gold Park Lake. Several mothers sponsored a dance honoring the seniors following the class night exercises. We wish to thank these people for the wonderful times that they made possible for us.

Our graduation exercises began May 21 with our Baccalaureate Sermon. Rev. Leon Couch of St. Paul Methodist Church in Goldsboro talked to us about the difference between right and wrong.

The following Friday night we had our class night program during which we reviewed our high school life.

On Monday, May 29, 1961, we completed our class history when we received our diplomas. Dr. John Horne of East Carolina College delivered our commencement address.

The Seniors of 1961 wish to thank everyone connected with our class throughout the years for the help given us. We wish especially to thank our parents, teachers, and friends for their guidance, patience, and understanding.

Prophecy

CAROLYN HOOKS has just returned from the Miss America contest where she won first-prize—a red and white helicopter.

CARLTON "love'em and leave'em" BLOW is now divorcing his sixth wife. He says he just can't find one who can run the tractor on his 500 acre farm.

LINDA BOSWELL's smash appearance at Moulin Rouge in Las Vegas has captivated that center of lights and glitter. She is now the highest paid entertainer in the country.

Ere many years JESSE BLACKMAN will be a solemn Doctor of Philosophy and in a manner haughty shall expound his wisdom and his theories profound.

Woman lawyer GERALYN DAVIS finally won a case, her first in fifteen years. It was a case of Purina chicken growena, won at a raffle sponsored by the Science Club.

Here's BONNY BASS. He was a big football star. That must be how he got the muscles to carry all those trash barrels around.

You'd never guess it! After many years of unsuccessful marriage, THELMA BENTON is now president of the "Lonely Hearts' Club." Her motto, "Love'em, beat'em, cheat'em and leave'em."

DANIEL JONES, world-renowned actor and golfer, has just given his premission for the production of his life story entitled, "Tee'd Off." It should be fabulous.

Flash Gordon, BILL AYCOCK, is the owner of a fleet of rockets that will span the globe in 30 minutes.

Our friend, CHARLOTTE GRAY, has a very small voice, but great big emotions and diction quite choice, so she'll be a radio crooner some day, and sob all her troubles in either way.

JIMMY BROUGHTON has lived up to all expectations and made a million dollars. How he made it is what the D.A. would like to find out.

Here is the former GERALDINE TEW and her husband. Their wealth is of a different nature—one, two, three, four, five, —. Unless they're left some at home that's all there are.

Unemployed genius wishes any job with big pay and short hours. Call JACK LANCASTER after 11:00 A.M.

BONNIE BALLANCE an expert on love and marriage, has just published her latest book entitled, "Cross Over the Bridge of Love—Happiness Is just Over the Hill."

KEITH DANIELS, famous crooner faints after being pursued by mobs of hysterical women.

I discovered RANDY PARRISH in a girl's boarding school. He's the dancing teacher.

FRANCES PARRISH, a girl of charm and grace, whose virtues are reflected in her face, will live in peace and plenty all her life, a housekeeper deluxe and happy wife.

Dr. BRIAN DAVIS has been on probation for telling his patients that "Those teeth are all right, but those gums have got to go."

VIRGINIA SULLIVAN who attempted a solo flight in high powered atomic cannon was last seen traveling over Tokyo at 300 miles an hour.

In school CARLTON DAVIS was always giving advice for nothing. Now he gets paid for it. You must have all read his "Advice to the Love-lorn" column in the paper. He should know the answers after having had five wives.

LOYDENE BASS, the girl who went to New York to strike it rich, did better than she thought she would; she has replaced Ann Southern as vice-president of the Barkley House.

Then there's LASSITER HOLLAND, the "Great Lover," who's still waiting to be recognized in Hollywood.

SYLVIA WILLIAMSON and Johnny were married soon after graduation and are now owners of a magnificent vacation resort in one of the craters on the moon.

BERT HAYES is still working on his invention, a way to can sunlight for use on rainy days.

FRANKLIN OVERBY is now a big landowner and he became a millionaire with his book entitled, "Of Course."

Last Will and Testament

We the Graduating Class of 1961, of Fremont High School, being of sound mind and body, about to embark into the unknown future, do hereby make and publish this our last will and testament.

To Mr. Cole we leave a portable milk warmer and many sleepless nights.

To Mrs. Green we leave our affection, gratitude, and many overdue "thank you's" for individual services and favors.

To the Faculty we just leave.

To the Juniors we leave all the money we had left over from our New York trip.

To the Sophomores we leave a bottle of smelling salts to help them recover from the shock of discovering that they don't know as much as they think they do.

Since this years' juniors are taking our place next year, we leave to the Freshmen our sympathy and pity for having to follow in their footsteps.

FRANCES PARRISH leaves her ability to "catch" a husband to Miss Bell and Miss Thompson.

BILL AYCOCK leaves his ability to drive a car without wrecking it to Billy Pate.

KEITH DANIELS leaves his ability to sleep in class and elsewhere to Gerry Smith.

GERALYN DAVIS leaves the physics class to any upcoming senior girl and hopes that she can endure the mental and physical strains it presents.

To those who will enjoy the memories contained within the pages of this 1961 GREGO we are indebted to Bonnie Ballance, Loydene Bass, Charlotte Gray, Linda Boswell, Lassiter Holland, GERALYN DAVIS, and Carolyn Hooks. The long hours and conscientious attentions to the details of planning and organizing the materials into this book went far beyond the call of duty.

THE SPONSOR

CAROLYN HOOKS leaves her many hair-dos to Brenda Fulkerson.

JESSE BLACKMAN leaves at last—and with plenty of sympathy for Mr. Green.

CYNTHIA WIGGS leaves her ability to play the piano to Buddy Aycock.

CARLTON BLOW leaves Mr. Ballance his workshop and hopes he will take care of it.

RANDY PARRISH leaves his ability to pitch baseball to Douglas Marlowe.

THELMA BENTON leaves part of her unique figure to Diana Pike, who she believes can handle it easily.

DANIEL JONES leaves his loud and vicious ways to Woody Joyner.

CHARLOTTE GRAY leaves her ability to sing to Janet Davis.

GERALDINE TEW leaves her ability to play basketball to Mary Ann Hales.

BRIAN DAVIS leaves his ability to lose weight to George Aycock.

LASSITER HOLLAND leaves his height to Jimmie Whitworth.

LOYDENE BASS leaves her "flirty" ways to Brenda Carter.

CARLTON DAVIS leaves his mother's hospital bills to Mrs. Green, who is more able to pay them.

LINDA BOSWELL leaves her jolly ways and many smiles to Mr. Cole.

FRANKLIN OVERBY leaves his popular saying "of course," to Mr. Ballance and Mr. Wainwright.

VIRGINIA SULLIVAN leaves her quiet shy ways to Sue Aycock.

BERT HAYES leaves his ability to study to Don Sasser.

JIMMY BROUGHTON leaves a giant-size bottle of reducing pills to Mrs. Green, so the next time she rides a bus to New York she won't take up so much of the other person's seat.

BONNIE BALLANCE leaves her ability to get along with Mr. Wainwright to Beverly Peacock and Amelia Hooks.

SYLVIA WILLIAMSON leaves her ability to get along with Air Force boys to Judy Hooks.

BONNY BASS leaves his fast driving to Nan Aycock.

JACK LANCASTER leaves his ring to Kay Pippin.

Finally, we do hereby name and appoint as the sole executor of this, our last will and testament, our class advisor, Mrs. Sedalia Green.

In witness whereof we, the class of 1961 have set our hand and seal this 26th day of May in the year of 1961.

JIMMY BROUGHTON and LOYDENE BASS
Testators

To you, Mrs. Blackman, we the 1960-61 GREGO Staff, wish to express our sincere appreciation and heartfelt thanks for your support, help, and guidance throughout the publishing of our yearbook.

We say "Thank you very much."
